

What is Community Energy?

Durham Community Action are working with local people to explore community owned renewable energy opportunities such as solar, wind and mine water.

These solutions could help reduce your fuel bills, lower carbon emissions and increase energy security.

To find out more call us on 01388 742040 or scan the QR code below to share your details.

What is Community Energy?

Durham Community Action are working with local people to explore community owned renewable energy opportunities such as solar, wind and mine water.

These solutions could help reduce your fuel bills, lower carbon emissions and increase energy security.

To find out more call us on 01388742040 or share your details with us by clicking this link